The President’s Corner — November 2017

Wow! It’s almost November and some of us are still looking for that 10 oz. nugget that must be laying in the Morristown desert just waiting to be swept into a gold pan.

Bob Hood, Ron Webb and Les Glover, along with a sizeable and energetic volunteer team, are in the process of testing new claims in the Wickenburg area. They are also testing in areas around Prescott, and in Prescott National Forest, as well as Palace Station. Also, Sunflower and Rye. If all goes well, there will be more claims for our members to enjoy soon.

Many of our claims are located on some of the most beautiful land in Arizona. Please enjoy the views as you travel around visiting our claims. An example of pristine desert land is our Lucky claims in the Wickenburg area. The Lucky claims are located just a few miles north of the Vulture City Ghost Town. If you get the chance, check it out. Henry Wickenburg claimed this mine in 1863 and, eventually, the town was established in 1880 by miners working Henry Wickenburg’s gold, rich Vulture Mine. My family visited the ghost town 2 years ago with my grandkids really enjoying the adventure. Watch for Fred and Charlene’s tag along outing to this great piece of history. You will enjoy the trip.

When our HOA community newsletter is distributed, you can bet that the main complaint in the newsletter will be to “clean up your dog waste!” You can also hang your Roadrunner hat that our newsletters will be mentioning “Leave NO Holes”. Paraphrasing one of our members visits to a recent claim site, “It looked like the moon with holes everywhere.” So, you can see the need for us to regularly ask that you “leave no holes” on our claims. Please read the following from our RRPC Rules and Regulations.

“Any RRPC member creating obstructions or hazards are responsible for returning the area to a usable and safe condition. Mining areas, must be filled in before leaving.”

If you have a situation that is a unique concern, requiring non-emergency help, please contact our office and leave a message at 602 274-2521, for advice or guidance. We are stewards of more than 5,000 acres, so please help by hauling out more trash than you haul in. Review the “Stewards of the Land” program, and you could win a real nugget that is large enough to bite. There is nothing like chewing on real Yummy RRPC Gold!

Check our Calendar of Events and join us for more fun times.

October Outing Events

The Cass Claims Dig on Saturday, October 21st was attended by over 100 hardworking RRPC prospectors. Dusty Ramsey with his backhoe opened up the hillside on the Cass 8 Claim. Members had many choices of areas to dry wash, detect or recirculate. Gold was found in their pans with, fines flakes, pickers and even nuggets!

A lunchtime Dutch Oven Feast was prepared by Al & Jenni Ordica and an able group of volunteers. 78 members took a break to enjoy a delicious meal. Many camped for the weekend and joined together for campfires, fun games and lots of visiting. Thanks to the Gentles & other members who tested for days to find the best areas for Dusty to dig. An army of helpers who set up equipment and the Dutch Oven cooking site. Clean up and trash got done in a jiffy with all the volunteers. What a fantastic Club! See you all at the November Coin Hunt. Come camp with us and participate in another amazing RRPC event! Your Outings Committee.

(Due to the large amount of articles and announcement, we are unable to include pictures from the October events. Several folks contributed excellent photos which we will include in coming newsletter issues.)

Promotions Committee Report

Newly founded Promotions Committee has completed and delivered RRPC Informational Posters to the two A & B Prospecting Stores. Member, Jim Christensen, conceptualized and created amazing pictorial posters. These will encourage new membership because that person interested in prospecting will see RRPC front and center when they shop for their first equipment. Pictures present members in action plus pertinent RRPC information. Everyone is invited to join our committee. So many great promotional ideas. Remember our RRPC strength and stability is in expanding our membership! Please contact Charlene Wilson if you are interested, call anytime, 623-695-1433

Outings Committee Needs Your Help

Your Outings Committee is in need of event volunteers! We deliver all your club equipment, set it up, take it down, tote in/out Porta Potties, post directional signs, bring all supplies and organize your events. We plan fun campfire games and gatherings throughout all event weekends. Any kind of assistance would be appreciated! Whether one club event or more.

Call anytime with your questions or to let us know you can support your club by volunteering. Charlene 623-695-1433 or Sheryl 623-687-8211
